

INDIAN PREMIER LEAGUE

IPL Overview

History: The Indian Premier League (IPL) was launched in 2008 by the Board of Control for Cricket in India (BCCI) as a professional Twenty20 cricket league. It revolutionized cricket with its city-based franchise model and attracted top players from around the world, making it one of the richest and most popular cricket leagues globally.

Team Profile

Format: Initially starting with eight teams, the IPL has expanded over the years, with franchises representing various cities across India. The league has seen numerous exciting matches, legendary performances, and controversies, contributing to its global appeal.

Player Profile

Update: As of 2024, the IPL continues to grow in popularity, with matches drawing massive viewership, both in India and internationally, solidifying its status as a premier cricketing event.
